

2015 Nominees Announced for 25 Under 35 Awards

Tuesday, October 14, 2014

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio -- The Mahoning Valley Young Professionals and the Community Foundation of the Mahoning Valley today announced the nominees for the 25 Under 35 awards.

A committee comprised of club members and foundation employees selected the nominees.

The awards ceremony will be held Feb. 5 at Stambaugh Auditorium, where three of the nominees will be named MVPs.

Proceeds from the dinner event benefit the Young Philanthropist Fund, a component fund of the Community Foundation.

Here are the nominees and their professional affiliations:

- Vito Abruzzino, Harrington, Hoppe and Mitchell
- Maggie Adams, Farmers Trust Company
- Marie Awad-Alexander, Humility of Mary Health Partners
- Carla Baldwin-Fields, Mahoning County Prosecutor's Office
- Jonathan Bentley, City of Youngstown
- Jana Coffin, Making Kids Count
- Matthew Eggleston, 4H Emergency Systems/HMHP
- Tysa Egleton, Youngstown State University
- Jen Gonda, Supported and Facilitated Environments
- Paul Hagman, RBF CoLab Architecture and Design
- Ryan Kelly, Belleria Pizza Girard
- John Landers, Case Western Reserve University
- Michael Latessa, Cardinal Mooney High School
- Louis Lee, Platt Insurance Group
- Sarah Lowry, U.S. Senator Sherrod Brown's Office
- Dom Marchionda, NYO Property Group
- Margaret Matune, Ursuline High School
- Robert McGovern, FirstEnergy
- Sarra Mohn, Jet Productions
- Katie Phibbs, The Lettuce People
- Tom Phibbs, Commonwealth, Inc.

- Candace Rivera, Corrections Corporation of America
- Lorilyn Shandor, OPRS Foundation/Park Vista
- Samantha Turner, American Maintenance Services, Inc.
- Kevin Willis, Strollo Architects
- Terrell Washington, Arch Hier Inc./HLW Fast Track

The Business Journal will introduce the nominees in its 25 Under 35 Extra Edition, to be published Dec. 16. To request advertising information, call 330 744 5023.

Published by The Business Journal, Youngstown, Ohio. CLICK HERE to subscribe to our free daily email headlines and to our twice-monthly print edition.